VOL. XXIV. No. 21. BOSTON, MASS., MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1904. PRICE FIVE CENTS.

CROSS COUNTRY RACE.

Tech Wins from Harvard 38-40.

E. H. Lorenz (Tech), was the first to reach the field, followed, at about 150 yards, by W. G. Howard (Harvard). The next men entered in the following order: third, H. R. Callaway (Tech); fourth, K. W. Lamson (Harvard); fifth, P. J. Clapp (Tech); sixth, H. H. Rowland (Harvard); seventh, M. S. More (Tech): eighth, C. J. Jackman (Harvard); ninth, S. Whitaker (Harvard); tenth, B. S. Gimson (Tech); eleventh, M. Crosby (Harvard); twelfth, M. E. McGregor (Tech.)

The men ran a lap and a half on the field and finished in the same order, Tech winning by the score of 38 to 40. Time of winner 24 min., 58 sec.

The Cross Country race started from West Roxbury promptly at 1.45 P.M. The runners were in the best of condition and the weather good for cross country running. Lorenz set the pace throughout the race with the other runners well bunched. There was a constant changing of positions, which kept the result much in doubt, and lent excitement to the race.

1908 Wins Tug-of-War.

When the pistol was fired for the tug-of-war, '08 began pulling the ribbon towards their flag. It slowly moved toward the freshman line and by a powerful pull, when the ribbon was only a foot from the flag, '08 pulled it over. The time was one minute eighteen and three-fifths seconds.

Field Day Dinner.

The annual dinner, complimentary to the participants in Technology Field Day (that is, football teams, relay teams and tug-of-war teams, and the officials and judges,) will be held at the Union on Monday, November 14, at 6.30 P.M.

All those who are members of teams of 1907 and 1908, and the marshals and officials who are among the undergraduates are hereby invited without further notice.

FRANK H. BRIGGS,
Chairman.

1907 WINS FIELD DAY.

Sophomores Take Football Game and Tie Relay Race. Freshman Win Tug-of-War. Score 1907 5½, 1908 3½.

Those who have watched the active and spirited preparations for the fourth Technology Field Day were not disappointed in their belief that we would have this year the best Field Day which has yet been held. In every way the Field Day was a splendid beginning for the many which will in the future be held at Technology Field.

The victory in the Cross Country race with Harvard put every one in the best of humor and gave a start to the cheering which compared favorably with that of previous years.

The attendance was very encouraging. The grandstand was full, as were the bleachers, while some two hundred others were not in the stands.

The first event, the football game, looked doubtful for the first few minutes of play, but before the end of the first half it was evident that the Sophomore Team was superior. They made two touchdowns in the first half and two in the second half and kicked two goals, giving a final score of 22-0. While 1907 made steady gains, it was only by hard fighting for every yard.

The relay race was run off between the halves of the football game. It was extremely closely contested and was by far the most exciting relay race that Technology has seen in a long while. At no time did either class lead by more than twenty feet; nor did either hold the lead for more than two laps. In the final relay the freshman started with six feet lead, bnt this was gradually reduced until the finish when there was considerable doubt among the spectators as to the winner. The judges announced a dead heat, and the three points accredited to the event were accordingly evenly divided.

In the tug-of-war, the freshmen obtained a slight advantage at the very first, which they gradually increased until after a pull of a minute and a quarter, the centre of the rope reached their flag.

The customary rushes followed the events and were conducted in an orderly and spirited manner.

The Game in Detail.

At 2.35 P.M., '07 kicked off to 25-yard line. The ball was returned five yards. Putnam carried the ball 3 yards, Boylston 3 yards, Putnam 5 yards, Boylston 2 yards. '08 fumbled but regained the ball. Child kicked to 50 yard line. Lamont carried the ball 40 yards. '07 fumbled but Tetlow fell on ball on 10-yard line. Fuller carried the ball 1 yard. '08 was penalized to the 5-yard line. Fuller went through left guard for 1 1-2 yards, and then carried the ball over for a touchdown, after nine minutes of play. A punt out by Tetlow failed. Score, 5-0.

'07 kicked off to 15-yard line. '08 fumbled but Barnes recovered the ball. Child kicked to Fuller at 30-yard line. Lamont carried the ball to the 13-yard line, and next time made 2 yards. Putnam went through left tackle for 2 yards. Gerould carried the ball through left guard to the 35-yard line. Boylston went around left end for 4 yards. Putnam went through left tackle for 2 yards, Glover gained 5 yards through right tackle, Smith 3 yards, and Putnam 5 yards. '08 then lost 1 yard, and Child again tried a place kick which failed. Time was called with the ball on '08's 7-yard line. Score, first half '07 11, '08 0.

SECOND HALF.

'08 kicked off to Starkweather who carried the ball to 25-yard line. Fuller gained 5 yards, and 5 yards more on another try, and Tetlow carried the ball to 40-yard line. Fuller gained 3 yards. Tetlow gained 1 yard and then failed to gain. Lamont, Peabody and Tetlow netted eleven yards, Lamont 2 yards more, Seymour 6 yards, and Godfrey failed to gain. Peabody gained 3 yards. At this point Davis was substituted for Lamont. Seymour gained 5 yards, Fuller 7 yards, and Godfrey 7 yards. A. Allen took Rapelye's place, Tetlow carried the ball 3 yards, Peabody 7 yards, Davis 1 yard, Tetlow 3 yards, and then to 1-yard line; Fuller was then pushed over for a touchdown. Tetlow missed the goal. Score 16-0. '07 kicked off to Ellis at 30-yard line. Boylston was thrown for a loss of 4 yards on the next play. Child punted 40 yards to Tetlow who ran the ball back 20 yards before he was downed. Godfrey gained 3 yards, Fuller 5 yards, Seymour 4 yards, Tetlow one-half yard, 4 yards, and then 2 yards, and Fuller 4 yards. This brought the ball to '08's 20-yard line. M. Allen was substituted for Child. Peabody then took the ball for a 4-yard gain. Regnell was substituted for Hall. Tetlow went around right end for a touchdown. Tetlow kicked the goal. Score, 22-0.

Fuller kicked to Barnes who ran ball back 15 yards. Boylston was given the ball but did not gain. Barnes fumbled the next pass but recovered the ball. Glover punted

Now that Field Day is past those of us who were at Tech last year, or before, can realize again what the Freshman is now, for the first time, realizing — and that is, that the contest is in every way worth while. To attempt to explain why would be useless; every man who took part in the contest, either as a member of one of the teams or as a spectator, knows that Field Day is worth while, and that it will continue as the chief event in the yearly life of at least the two lower classes at Technology. So here's to Field Day 1905.

RELAY RACE.

Exciting Contest Which Ends in a Dead Heat.

Weinz and Leavell started off, running an even race until about twenty yards from the finish, when Leavell gained a few yards. For 1907 Barrows increased this lead to 10 yards. Schalling and Moody were evenly matched, the lead of 1907 being lost by bad passing. The race was even until Edmunds gained five yards for 1908, which Brooks made eight yards. The next two runners for 1907 made up the '08 lead. Orr and Richards started the last half lap with Orr two yards in the lead. Richards gradually closed up and finished on even terms with Orr after an exciting struggle at the finish. The race was declared a dead heat. Time, 5 minutes, 9 2-5 seconds. Members of both teams will receive their numerals. The men ran in the following order:

1907 — Leavell, Barrows, Moody, Beam, Bragdon, Albro, Swett, Eaton, Williams, Thomas, Very and Richards.

1908 — Weinz, Todd, Shalling, Steele, Taylor, Friedman, Edmunds, Brooks, Dwight, Belleveau, Loomis and Orr.

FOOTBALL DIAGRAM.

Explanation. In the First Half the 1907 goal is on the right for the first touchdown, and on the left for the second touchdown. In the second half the 1907 goal is on the left for the third touchdown, and on the right for the fourth touchdown.

Tremont Theatre.

Miss Henrietta Crosman, surrounded by an able company, is continuing her success in David Belasco's scenic production, "Sweet Kitty Bellairs," at the Tremont. The scene of the play is laid in Bath during the Gainsborough period, and the love, war, and social intrigue of the time are faithfully portrayed. Miss Crosman as Mistress Kitty Bellairs, the dashing widow, adds one more triumph to her list of successes.

Park Theatre.

Boston now has a chance to see "The Secret of Polichinelle" which enjoyed so great a vogue when James K. Hacket presented it in New York.

Hollis Street Theatre.

William Gillette has been splendidly received in "The Admirable Crichton," and the general verdict is that this delightful comedy by J. J. Barrie is the most brilliant success that he has ever made. The castaways in the Pacific, and the rise and fall of the wonderful butler, are splendidly shown by Mr. Gillette and Charles Frohman's excellent company.

Colonial Theatre.

Mr. Richard Mansfield opens an engagement for two weeks on Monday. The plays in which he will appear are, "Ivan the Terrible," "Beau Brummel," "The Merchant of Venice," King Richard III," "A Parisian Romance," and "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde."

Tech Night at the Globe.

The custom of holding a Tech Night at one of the theatres was continued Saturday night after Field Day. The Globe Theatre where Stella Mayhew was playing in "Flo-Flo" was packed with an audience consisting almost entirely of Technology adherents. The Classes of 1907 and 1908 vied with each other throughout the evening in cheering and in the display of banners. The evening was a fitting conclusion of a memorable day.

The Course in Microscopic Organism begins Thursday, November 17, at ten o'clock, Room 28, Pierce Building.
